

INAUGURAL EVENT!

presentationcamp

Stanford, CA ★ Feb 28, 2009 ★ www.presentationcamp.org

Logistics

Online Access

Connect to the Stanford network and point your browser to any webpage to login. Accounts range from pcamp1 to pcamp50. Password: prescamp.

Twitter Tips

If you tweet, use the #prescamp hashtag and follow @prescamp. If you're curious about Twitter, find Don. He can help you set up an account.

Post-Session Tasks

When a session starts, make sure someone takes notes. Afterwards, session leaders should find the video camera at Session Taping (along with Carolyn) and record a 30-second impression. And, look for a volunteer who will help post notes online.

The Book Table

Look for this between Room 100 and Breakout A. If you leave a book for others to browse, place your name on the inside cover with a Post-It. If you borrow a book, leave a slip of paper with the title and your name.

Theme Tables

If you would like feedback on a presentation or talk, sign up for a theme roundtable. With only 3-4 seats, these tables are great to share ideas in a small, informal setting.

Keeping Things Clean

Your mother doesn't live here :-). Help minimize our cleanup efforts by compacting and placing trash in the (very small) cans and recycle bins. Thanks!

Don't forget the principles of an unconference:

- Whoever comes are the right people.
- Whatever happens is the only thing that could have.
- Whenever it starts is the right time.
- When it is over, it is over.

And remember, if you're not learning nor contributing, then use the Law of Two Feet and find a space where you can.

| Write the session title below: | What's the (one) most important concept that you want to remember or implement? |

| Session 4 | |
| Overall Impressions | |

Take a few moments to reflect on what you've experienced after each session. At the end of camp, we'll ask everyone to share an overall impression. If you jot down something throughout the day, we all will have time to share an idea.
