

History Camp

History Camp

An unconference approach to history.

Saturday, March 8, 2014
IBM Innovation Center in Cambridge

Presentations and presenters scheduled so far include “The Boston Bankruptcy That Led to the American Revolution,” from J. L. Bell, Boston 1775 • “John Singleton Copley in America: What is Real and What Imagined in the Iconic Portraits of Patriots and Tories?” a profusely illustrated lecture from Sam Forman, Dr. Joseph Warren • “The Second New England: New York and the post-Revolution New England Migration, 1783-1830,” from Liz Covart, Uncommonplace Book • “From ‘Folly’ to Great Idea: The History of the Erie Canal and How it Transformed America,” from Liz Covart, Uncommonplace Book • “The Temperance Movement: A Doorway to Suffrage,” from Colleen Janz, the Susan B. Anthony Birthplace Museum” • “Becoming a Historian” • “Becoming a published author: A panel discussion” • “Employment options for history lovers: A panel discussion” • And you, if you’d like. Just add your name and topic.

Registration required.

It’s free, or choose the individual sponsor level and get the t-shirt.

www.HistoryCamp.org

History Camp

HISTORY CAMP

History Camp

History Camp
HISTORY CAMP